1 Corinthians 12:7-11 ESV

7 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, 9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, 10 to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. 11 All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills.

Big Idea: Spiritual gifts were never meant to highlight gifted people—they were meant to reveal the Gift-Giver.

Main Point: Every believer is gifted by the Spirit Vs. 7 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

> "The gifts which the Lord has bestowed upon His Church are not intended to remain unemployed, but ought to be applied to the common advantage of all." John Calvin

- To each is GIVEN. Is given" (δίδοται – didotai) Pronunciation DIDO-ME
    - This verb is in the present passive indicative.
        - That means: Present: God is continually giving. Passive: We receive rather than earn. Indicative: This is a statement of fact, not a command.
- The gifts are supernatural: "the manifestation of the Spirit"

> A manifestation of the Spirit is a supernatural work of the Holy Spirit that makes God's presence evident through a believer to strengthen, encourage, and build up the body of Christ.

- The Spirit is the star of this passage, not the gifts.
    - The Spirit distributes them as He wills: Vs. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, Vs. 9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit,
        - In 1 Corinthians 12:7–11, the word "Spirit" (Greek: πνεῦμα, pneuma) appears six times.

Practical Takeaway:

Ask for more: 1 Corinthians 14:1 Pursue love, and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy.

Small Group Discussion Questions:

1. How does knowing that every believer is gifted by the Holy Spirit change the way you see your role in the church?
2. Have you ever experienced a manifestation of the Spirit through your life or someone else's? What happened?
3. Why do you think Paul emphasizes the Holy Spirit more than the gifts in this passage?
4. What gift or opportunity to serve might God be calling you to use instead of leaving unused?
5. What does it look like to earnestly desire spiritual gifts while continuing to pursue love?
